MATRICULATION

Entering students who have presented satisfactory credentials are matriculated by subscribing to the following declaration required by the Plan of the Seminary:

“Deeply impressed with a sense of the importance of improving in knowledge, prudence and piety, in my preparation for the Gospel ministry, I solemnly promise, in a reliance on divine grace, that I will faithfully and diligently attend on all the instructions of this Seminary, and that I will conscientiously and diligently observe all the rules and regulations specified in the Plan for its instruction and government, so far as the same relates to the students; and that I will obey all the lawful requisitions, and readily yield to all the wholesome admonitions of the Professors and Trustees of the Seminary while I shall continue a member of it.”

RULES OF ATTENDANCE

The attention of students is called to their pledge taken at matriculation: “I solemnly promise, in reliance on divine grace, that I will faithfully and diligently attend on all the instructions of this Seminary.”

This pledge obligates students to regular attendance upon all the exercises of this Seminary.

Should a student for any reason be absent from a course 15% or more of the classroom periods he shall not be permitted to continue the course, or to take the final examination, except by permission of the Faculty. If a student has cut more than 15% he must petition the Faculty for reinstatement in the class by writing a letter to the Dean, who is Secretary of the Faculty.

This rule does not apply to students who attained a first group average during the preceding three terms.

Absences immediately preceding or following a vacation period are counted as double.

The rules governing attendance are the same for elective courses as for other courses.

EXAMINATIONS

Examinations for those conditioned in or absent from the regular examinations are held on the second Saturday of the succeeding term.

In the case of courses which are prerequisite for those which are given in the subsequent term the examinations shall be held some time during the first two weeks of the new term, the student meantime being enrolled provisionally until he has satisfactorily completed the requirements for the prerequisite course.

Students desiring to have an examination postponed, should present a written request to the Dean, indicating the reasons for postponement.

GRADING SYSTEM

The group-standing in a course is indicated as follows: 1—excellent; 2—good; 3—average; 4—passing; 5—conditioned, whether because of failure or an unexcused absence from the final examination; 6—failed.

The group-standing for the term is obtained by multiplying the hours per week by its group number, in the case of each subject, and dividing the sum of the products by the sum of the hours per week.

The limit for the First Group is 1.50; Second Group 2.30; Third Group 3.30; Fourth Group 4.30.

INCOMPLETE COURSES

Any student whose work is incomplete in any course at the time of the final examination in that course shall receive the grade of 5. A student is permitted to petition the Faculty for an extension of time for the writing of a required paper, but the grade in the course will be 5 unless special action is taken. Such a petition should be presented to the Dean. If a student having been marked 5 in this manner should complete the work for the course within two weeks after the following term begins, he shall receive the grade of 4.

A student is not permitted to drop a course after mid-term without permission of the Faculty.

FELLOWSHIPS

Regulations governing the granting of Fellowships and Prizes are stated in the catalogue. A student receives three hours credit for a Fellowship thesis.

TRANSCRIPTS

A student or alumnus may request that a transcript of his record be sent to a given address. There is no fee for the first transcript but a charge of one dollar is made for additional transcripts.

ADVISERS

The Faculty of the Seminary desires to come to know the new students and to be of help to them in every way possible. A Faculty Adviser, therefore, will be assigned to each new student. A student should, of course, feel perfectly free to consult with any other member of the Faculty at any time.

AUTOMOBILES

Students who own cars have the privilege of parking them on special parking spaces provided for the purpose. On no account must cars be parked on campus roads. After due notice has been given regarding the date upon which this regulation goes into force each year, a fine will be collected for each violation.

CHAPEL

The Seminary meets four days a week for morning prayers in the chapel, from 9:10 to 9:30 o'clock. The service is led by members of the Faculty on two days and by Seniors and Graduate Students two days each week. The entire Seminary family is expected, under ordinary circumstances, to be present.

FIELD WORK

Field Work is Christian service with churches or other organizations and is the laboratory or clinical work of the Seminary course. Students are urged not to undertake outside duties during the first term of the Seminary course, with the exception of singing in the Seminary Choir or service with one of the Gospel Teams. It is necessary to know a student's qualifications and academic standing before the field work undertaken may be properly correlated with the Seminary course. If a student must assume a pastorate during his Junior or Middle year he is required to take four years for the Seminary course.

Four points of supervised field work credit are required for graduation. This means work during four terms of the Seminary course. Two points are given for full-time summer service under the Board of National Missions, or work supervised and reported in a similar way. A year of Internship with such supervision may count for the full four points required.

The objects of Field Work are first of all service to the church and the kingdom of Christ; secondly, experience in Christian service and education through learning by doing, and in the third place financial help as it may be needed. At the time of matriculation each student should fill out a blank which will be a permanent record of field service. Students should enter their field work on this blank each term. The Field Department also has charge of the Church Participation which is required of students who receive service loans through the Board of Christian Education.

THE LIBRARY

The library now contains 229,578 books and periodicals. It is one of the outstanding libraries of the world for the purpose of theological study.

Hours. The library buildings are open Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. and from 7 p.m. to 11 p.m.; and on Saturday from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

The Reserve Library, in the Gothic building across Mercer Street from Alexander Hall, was erected in 1843 as a gift of Mr. James Lenox. It contains the books placed on reserve for the courses of the Seminary (in the alcove to the right of the entrance), a select collection of the best commentaries and of a few important reference books (in the alcove to the left of the entrance) and the bound and unbound periodicals. In this building are also shelved the following classes of books of the circulating collection: philosophy, psychology, anthropology, economics, sociology, political science, education, art, science, languages and literature. The catalogue in this building is an author list for books in the Reserve Library building. For a complete record of the books in both library buildings it is necessary to go to the Circulating Library.

The Circulating Library, in the red brick structure beyond the Reserve Library, is the main building of the library. Here are the card catalogue listing all the books in both buildings, the large reference collection, and the greatest part of the book collections of the Seminary. In this building the student will find most of the books needed for classes with the exception of the reserve books. The card catalogue and the reference collection will answer most of the students' questions, and the trained library staff and the librarian will be glad to give assistance in the use of the library.

The classification of the library for nonreligious books is being changed to that of the Library of Congress. For theological books the library retains a simple classification which is easy for students to use. The classification schedules for religious literature may be consulted at the library desks.

There is also a Reading Room in the Education Building.

BORROWING BOOKS

Books may be borrowed by filling in the borrower slip and by presenting the slip and the book at the desk for checking.

Most books circulate for a period of two weeks, and may be renewed for two additional periods if there are no other requests for the book. Bound periodicals may be borrowed for two weeks and may not be renewed. Unbound periodicals (with the exception of the latest issue) may be borrowed for only one week, and may not be renewed. Books on the reserve shelf may be borrowed when the library closes and are to be returned when the building reopens.

FINES

Fines are charged at the rate of two cents a day for overdue books from the general collection. Reserve books, due at 9:00 a.m., are charged for at the rate of twenty-five cents for the first two-hour period overdue and fifteen cents for each additional two-hour period.

Students are invited to help in protecting the books from being defaced and from becoming marred by writing and underlining.

THE UNIVERSITY LIBRARY

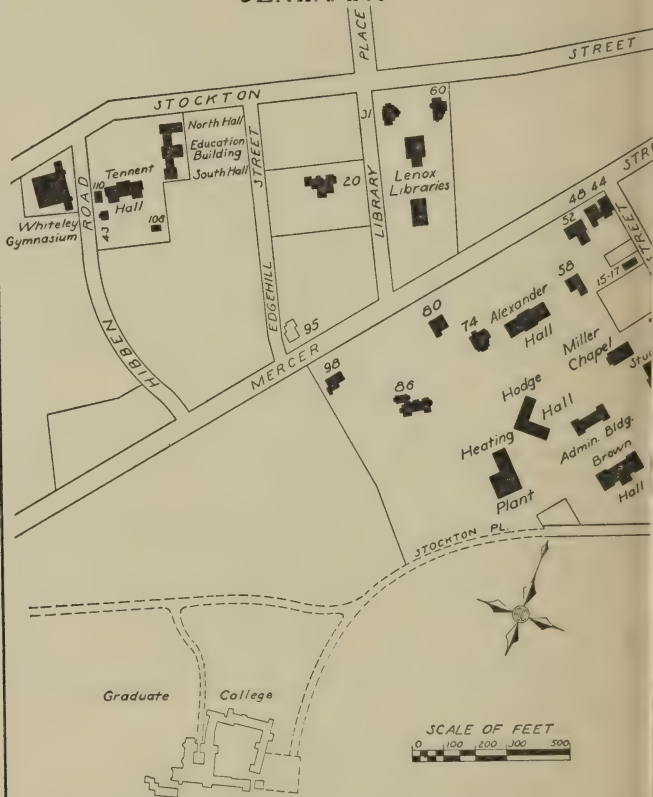

Students of the Seminary have the free use of the Library of Princeton University after signing a registration card at the circulation desk. Students may fill out a call slip for the book desired and ask an attendant to send a page for it or they may go directly to the stacks for it. The time limit and other information may be found in the Handbook of the Princeton University Library, which can be obtained at the Circulation Desk.

The following pamphlets have been prepared for the guidance of students, and may be obtained at the Theological Book Agency at a special student price:

MAIL

All mail will be delivered to the Treasurer's Office until the temporary directory is complete. Be sure to have mail addressed to room number, in care of Princeton Seminary. This is important, particularly in the case of Brown Hall, as there is also a Brown Hall in Princeton University.

MEDICAL CARE

By arrangement with Princeton University our men students have the same medical care as University students. In case of illness report immediately to the University Infirmary, or if unable to leave your room, ask a friend to notify the Treasurer's office and transportation will be provided. Dispensary hours are posted on Seminary bulletin boards.

Women students, if taken ill, should call Dr. W. G. Rainey, 34 Bayard Lane; Telephone 1335.

All students should notify the office of the President or the Dean in the case of illness.

The physicians at the Infirmary will give advice in reference to dentists, oculists, etc., when requested.

ROOMS AND MEALS

A student whose bedding has not arrived in time to be used the first night or two may borrow a set at the Treasurer's Office for twenty-five cents plus a deposit of $5.00. Such borrowed bedding must be returned to the same office not later than October 5th, when the deposit will be refunded.

For the first week of the Seminary year, all new men students (except those who are married) will take their meals in the three clubs in succession. The first meal will be served on Monday evening, September 24th, at 6:15 p.m. See Stuart Hall bulletin board after room drawing for assignment. The women students will take their meals in the dining room of Tennent Hall. Married couples living in Hodge Hall will have the opportunity to eat together in a cooperative club at 44 Mercer Street.

The drawing for the choice of rooms will take place on Monday, September 24th, at 3:00 p.m., in Room 5, Stuart Hall. Before the drawing students may inspect the vacant rooms. A list of these vacant rooms will be posted on the bulletin board of each dormitory on Monday morning.

SCHOLARSHIP FUNDS

Applications for scholarships by students whose personal financial resources are insufficient for Seminary expenses should be filed in the Treasurer's Office not later than Saturday, September 29th. Notice will be posted soon thereafter regarding personal interviews. Even though aid has been promised, application should be made. Presbyterians (U.S.A.) should apply to the Board of Christian Education before applying to the Seminary and if the loan from the Board is insufficient, then apply to the Seminary for a supplementary grant.

KOINONIA

Koinonia is a society composed of students who are working towards the degree of Doctor of Theology. Meetings are held from time to time during the academic year, at which diverse themes of theological interest are discussed.

SEMINARY CHOIR

All those interested in trying out for the First Choir are urged to sign the schedule on the Stuart Hall bulletin board. This touring choir will sing in three different churches every Sunday during the academic year with the exception of a few holiday Sundays.

STUDENT ASSOCIATION

Every regularly enrolled student shall be considered a member of the Student Association of the Seminary.
